Dear Parent/Guardian,

Year 11 Mock examinations

1. I write to inform you that your child will soon be sitting English mock examinations in readiness for the GCSE English Language exams this coming November. These mock exams will allow Year 11 learners to practise the exam skills they have been developing in their English lessons.

2. The first mock was an English Walking Talking Mock conducted during lessons from the week beginning 26th September. On this occasion, English teachers guided learners through the paper and offered advice and support as learners were working. The second mock exam will take place on Tuesday 11th October in the Main Hall under normal exam conditions. The exam will start at 12:45pm promptly following Break 1. The exam will run for two hours and all learners must remain in the Main Hall until the exam finishes. This may mean that learners need to remain in the Main Hall a short while after 2:45pm. Learners who are entitled to extra time will be able to stay into the second break resulting in them finishing after 2:45pm. Please note that learners with concessions will be in a separate room; this room may differ for the mocks and the actual exam.

3. English revision sessions are underway and take place every Tuesday in FCO2 from 2:45pm-3:45pm. We would encourage all learners to attend as this is an excellent way for them to receive extra support in the areas where they need it.

4. The actual GCSE exams will take place in November: Unit 2, Monday 7th November and Unit 3, Wednesday 9th November.

5. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions about these arrangements.

Yours sincerely,

R Morgan
